Nov. 2412

TUESDAY, MARCH 22 1743.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Petersbourg, March 8.

HERE is very little done in the Conferences at Abo, and as Things stand, very little is like to be done, since our Plenipotentiaries are tied up in the Plan of a Treaty on the Part of the Swedish Ministers, on the other Hand, are forbid to exceed the Terms stipulated by the Treaty of Neutrality, which keeps them at such a Distance, that neither Side expect much from their Negotiations. An Officer has been lately dispatched to Siberia, with an Order to Count Monich; but as to the Import of this Order, People are much divided: Some will have it, that he will speedily be restored to Favour, whereas others, with greater Probability, conjecture that it concerns only the Change of the Place of his Confinement, and that he will, for the future, be more commodiously lodg'd than hitherto he has been.

Stockholm, March 12. It has been thought proper to form the Finland Troops into one Regiment. They had, at the End of the last Campaign, been incorporated into the Swedish Regiments, but upon their complaining that they did not understand the Language in which they received Orders, it was judg'd expedient to re-unite them into a single Corps. The Disputes that have lately happen'd on the Subject of the Succession, entirely destroying that Harmony which is so requisite to publick Councils, it has been found necessary to appoint a particular Committee to consider whether it be expedient to proceed immediately to the Consideration of that Matter, to draw up a List of the Candidates, and to point out the Advantages and Disadvantages to which the Choice of each of them will be liable. This Committee is to consist of 8 Deputies from the Nobility, and 4 from each of the other Orders; upon the making of their Report, this important Business will be certainly determined.

Copenhagen, March 13. We begin more to take it for granted, that the true Intent of our great Armament is only to give Weight to the Negotiations of M. Birkenhead at Stockholm, by convincing the Swedish Nation that they need not fear an effectual Support, in case they shall think fit to renew the Union of Calmar, but prudent People think that the Swedes will make this their Resource.

Naples, March 6. The Politicks of our Court are beyond all searching out. It is now said that the King intends to declare absolutely for the Spaniards; which is the more extraordinary, since the Battle of Campo Santo appears to be decisive, and the Count de Gages is so far from being able to act on the Offensive, that if he is furnish'd with a considerable Body of Troops from France, it will be impossible for him to make good his Retreat into the Territories of this Crown. This is certainly, that the People are very little satisfied with this Change of Conduct in the Court.

Vienna, March 13. The Conditional Treaty between Hungarian Majesty and the King our Sovereign is now void, by the Signing a few Days ago, under Mediation of Great Britain, a definitive and perpetual Treaty; in consequence of which, Part of the Austrian Troops that are coming to Italy, will join the Montefiore Army, in order to enable his Majesty to enter the Campaign very early in Savoy. These Regiments consist of no less than 20,000 Men, 14,000 of which are on their March thro' Tyrol, and 6000 are to be transported to Trieste, and afterwards to embark on the 20th.

Prague, March 13. Her Majesty has been pleas'd to Count Khevenhuller to command her Army in Italy, with Orders to act as to him shall seem expedient. The Prince of Saxe-Gotha is to go immediately to Italy, where he is to command the Cavalry under the Duke of Brunswick. Capt. Hugh O Kelly, usually filed here as a Captain in the Regiment of Thun, died here a few Days since, in the 58th Year of Age. It is every Day more apparent, that Peace is at a greater Distance than ever. We take it for granted that the Army of Prince Lobkowitz will be join'd the 1st of next Month by 4000 Men of the Troops of Saxony, which have been lately taken into their Service by the States-General for that Purpose. The Declaration of her Majesty for Prague is fixed for the 25th of next Month; and it is believed her being with Child is publicly declared on her Arrival there.

Vienna, March 24. His Imperial Majesty is again attack'd with the Gout, and seems to be worse than before; he has absolutely disclaim'd all Intention to aggrandize his own Dominions at the Expence of the Ecclesiastical Princes of the Empire. As vast Quantities of Provisions are daily bought up for the Use of the Auxiliary Troops, we conclude, that they will very shortly arrive here, and that they will stay a considerable Time in this Neighbourhood. A Report has been lately spread, that the French intended to march a great Army into Bavaria thro' the Black Forest; to which, however, few People give Credit. A worse Piece of News is more certain, his Prussian Majesty has declar'd peremptorily, that if he grants his Mediation for composing the present Disturbances, it must be in Conjunction with the Maritime Powers; and that otherwise, all he can promise is to remain entirely Neuter.

Dusseldorp, March 16. We learn by a Courier just arriv'd, that as soon as the Earl of Stair was inform'd of the Death of the Elector of Mentz, he gave Orders for the English Troops to march at a Minute's Warning. We expect they will pass the Rhine To-morrow at Mulheim, and continue their Rout directly to Mentz. It is not doubted here, but that the French will likewise send a Body of Troops that Way, in order to support the Pretensions of Prince Theodore of Bavaria, Bishop of Ratisbon and Freisingen, Brother to his Imperial Majesty. The Choice of the new Elector will in a great Measure determine the Fate of Germany.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible

Cure in the Universe for the Venereal Disease, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and desolating Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are the roughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CHAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relics on one Hand, or a terminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Ulcers, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out,
 and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as usually to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Discomfort requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relics of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it entirely themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, and main in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on the Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even venereal Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is Six Shillings a Pot, considering its extraordinary efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to plish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is pointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RAYMOND Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clements Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and be cer-know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
